Note from the Principal

Dear Families:
As we near the end of our first semester of this school year, we have many things to be thankful for. I am grateful for each and every staff member who comes to school each morning with an open heart and a welcoming smile, ready to share their love of learning. I am also thankful for students who come eager to learn and who show respect for others. I appreciate parents who are understanding about our current limitations and trust us with their children. What are you thankful for? When we focus on blessings, we have less time to complain. I wish everyone a blessed Thanksgiving.

With Gratitude
Mrs. Cook

Attention 5th Grade Parents

McMillen Center for Health Education will be here on Tuesday, Nov. 23rd at 9 am, presenting Bodies in Progress. McMillen Center staff will present information regarding female and male changes during puberty. Participation in this program promote positive self-image and reinforces that the changes of puberty are normal. The presentation will take place in separate rooms for girls and boys. If no permission slip is returned, students will attend the presentation.

A THANKSGIVING BLESSING
by Rick W. Cotton

It's cold outside, but it's warm in my heart.
And the gray fall sky is His work of art.
Laden and low, quiet and still,
November is welcome, and my eyes
drink their fill

Of brown-gray grass and red-orange leaves,
Of pavement winding through the strong,
stately trees.
Down the hill, past the barn, past the gate, up the lane,
The house with bright candles in each window pane.

Now I step inside; oh, it's warm! Oh, that smell!
Hot turkey roasting, potatoes done well!
Sweet, spicy cider, and warm winter wine
Cranberry sauce - Oh! - the flavors - divine!

The smiles and hugs are so warm and sweet.
In this cold gray November, a Thanksgiving treat.
I do love it all and am so thankful; yes,
For this lovely season...I am truly blessed.
