Shop with a Cop/Marshall County Neighborhood Center

If you are looking for Christmas Assistance this holiday season, two great programs are taking applications. Shop with a Cop is a program for Marshall and Kosciusko County children where the child will go and do shopping with someone from the program. The application is due back to the Elementary office by November 29, 2022. The Marshall County Neighborhood Center provides assistance for families that live in Marshall County only. The application is due back to the elementary office by November 15, 2022. You can pick up an application in the front office for both programs.
