Alignment - Hoosier North Athletic Conference (HNAC) for a Sportsmanship Summit
 For the second straight year, Grace College and Director of Athletics Chad Briscoe welcomed student-athletes from the high schools of the Hoosier North Athletic Conference (HNAC) for a Sportsmanship Summit on Wednesday. Invited to this great event have not arrived but have been given the incredible responsibility to listen, learn, and lead to the best of their ability. Thank you Jillian Bules, Avery Viers, Sierra Hawley, Nadia Stetler, Kate Howell, Caden Large, Dante' Workman, Colton Large, Gage Riffle, and Vinny Prater for taking the time to continue to grow your leadership in your family, our school, and in our community!

Evidence Based Decision Making - Kindergarten Registration will be tomorrow night, April 9 4-6pm at Triton Elementary School. This evening is a great way to learn more about our high quality program, and it does give us great information as to staffing needs for the following school year.

Today, Triton dismissed early after doing special activities in both buildings to educate our scholars on the Solar Eclipse. Thank you to Mr. McKeand and Mrs. Cook for overseeing these activities. Thank you to our transportation staff for ensuring our students got home safely and were able to enjoy this event without safety concerns.
